

Claim No. 203.

Under Article 14. Treaty of 14th June 1866.
with Creek Indians.

The undersigned, Hackless Corbey, Aged 45, a Freedman of the Creek Nation, being duly sworn and examined, deposes and says: ---
--- Whilst living on his place near the Creek Agency, Creek Nation, and early in the winter of 1861-2. he necessarily fled away from his home, on account of the rebels committing depredations and murders of his people all around, and went to Kansas.
That while en route, and only a short distance from the Arkansas River, was "bush-whacked" and shot-from effects of which he was in Hospital Camp at Gibson for about three months: Afterward, was in the employ of U.S. Quartermasters Department as Teamster where he remained until the war ended, when he returned to the Nation. Deposeant further says: at the time he fled his home he owned and possessed & necessarily abandoned and lost all the following named property, and never afterward, recovered the same on any part thereof. To Say:

100	One hundred hogs	$ 300.	10 Cows & Calves	$ 100.	$ 400.00
100	One hundred bush. Corn	$ 100.	2 Steers.	$ 10.	110.00
	making a total value of				$ 510.00

Five hundred and ten dollars. Further saith not.
except as to the statement made that he "went to Kansas - that he intended to say, "started for Kansas -

The undersigned John Kernell, and Jim Kernell, Freedmen of the Creek Nation, being duly sworn and examined, do, jointly depose and say:
They are not interested in the claim of the above named Hackless Corbrey, in any pecuniary manner, whatever: that they have heard his deposition read to them, and know the same to be true and correct in every particular: Deponents further say: of their own knowledge, the said claimant, at the time of his flight, did own and possess, and did necessarily abandon and lose all the property enumerated in his deposition. Further these Deponents do not say.

Awards

The loss of property specified above is deemed established by the foregoing testimony. Also the status of claimant. The amount claimed, however, is, in some instances, considered excessive. Upon inquiry, it is found, the values of the different kinds of property, at the time the loss occurred, ruled as follows: -

Hogs:-	$2.00 Each.
Cows + calves:-	8.00 .
Corn per bushel.	.30 .
Sticks - (Cattle, Stock)	5.00 .

In consideration of these and all other facts attainable, bearing upon the case, we believe it just and equitable to award this claimant Hackles Corbrey Three hundred and forty dollars -

$340.⁰⁰/₁₀₀
